RACING BEGINS AT JOLIET

MIXED MEETING IN CONNECTION WITH FAIR OPENS AUSPICIOUSLY.

No Open Bookmaking to Be Permitted by Manag ment this Week-Movement for Prolonga-tion of Meeting Takes Shape.

Joliet, Ill., August 24.—Under conditions that were entirely satisfactory to the management, the mixed meeting in connection with the annual fair of Will County opened at Ingalls Park this afternoon. The racing program was devoted principally to the trotters, although the card included two running races, as it will each afternoon until Saturday, which will be Chicago day, with the runners in full possession.

rocters, atthough the card included two running races, as it will each afternoon until Saturday, which will be Chicago day, with the runners in full possession.

The attendance today was fully up to expectations, the grandstand being well filled with interested spectators, including a sprinkling of well-known followers of the running turf. There was no open bookmaking on the races, what betting well will be the races, what betting the company of the running turf. There was no open bookmaking on the races, what betting was the recompany of the races, what betting the races, what betting the races, what betting was the races of the races, what betting the races of the races, what betting the races of the races of

FRENCH WOULD RE-PURCHASE ADAM.

New York, August 24.—Francis C. Bishop, who paid 865,000 to Edmund Blanc for the Flying Fox stallion, Adam, and subsequently sold the horse at Paris last year, says that M. Blanc is organizing a syndicate to purchase Adam from the Hungarian government and re-establish him in France. The performances of two of Adam's first two-year-olds when Adam was been at France to a good horse when Adam was been at France for a good horse fall. A colt and a filly by Adam have shown especially well. The filly, Marsas, after defeating the best fillies in France, took on a bunch of colts and beat them. She is fast, game and she manages weight well.

Adam was bred by M. Blanc and he was a successful race horse. He won six straight races as a two-year-old and three at three. After his purchase by Mr. Bishop he was brought to this country and established at the Milistream Stud, where he served a stallished at the Milistream Stud, where he served a parallel of the stallished at the Milistream Stud, where he served a parallel specific mares at $1,000 per service. The two-year-olds racemares at $1,000 per service. The two-year-olds racemares at $1,000 per service. The two-year-olds racemares at $1,000 per him. The oldest youngsters by Adam bred in this country are now yearlings.

Mr. Bishop sold Adam in France last fall because youngsters by Adam brea in this country, yearlings.

Mr. Bishop sold Adam in France last fall because things looked squally for racing in this country. The horse was knocked down to an agent of the fungarian government at public auction for $57,000.

Mr. Bishop thinks it improbable that M. Blanc's syndicate will succeed in re-purchasing him. The Hungarians wanted him apparently to improve the native stock of the country or they would not have sent to Paris for him.

SARATOGA AND JOCKEY CLUB AIMS.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 24.—Following is the full text of the speech made by R. T. Wilson, Jr., presi-dent of the Saratoga Association, at the Newcastle Stable's annual dinner here on Sunday: "I would dent of the Spratoga Association, at the Newcastle Stable's annual dinner here on Sunday: "I would like to thank all the horsemen, owners and trainers and the public for their generous support of the racing here this year. The Saratoga Association has made every effort to conduct our meeting properly under the conditions that exist at the present time. We want to continue to conduct our meetings so as not to offend any portion of the public. We will endeavor to give clean, honest and wholesome sport. "You all know that many difficulties hamper racing now. But the mistakes of the past we have endeavored to rectify, and we hope to avoid mistakes believed to rectify, and we hope to avoid mistakes. Beliout, is carnestly streing and money to this cand. We should all be thankful for his support, "Around the race course one may hear many rumors that tend to injure racing, but when sifted thoroughly they are usually found to be without any foundation. Every horseman at least should endeavor to avoid as far as possible any expression that might prove inimical to the sport that we all love and enjoy.

"We are not wholly out of the woods yet, though the pathway appears to be clear and unobstructed. But we cannot always feel sure. We want to one and all of us unite in the endeavor to keep racing up to a high standard. With united effort we are sure to Succeed."

ROCKY O'BRIEN GOES TO SHEEPSHEAD.

AFTER HORSES FOR CAVALRY PURPOSES.

Lexington, Ky., August 24.—Herr Raymond Kessler and Herr Max Caspiari of Berlin, Germany, are here purchasing horses for cavalry use in the German army. Today they bought of Messrs, Tevis, Wilkerson and Richardson the thoroughbreds Selector, Zenora, Research and Tithonogen. Herr Kessler pronounced the breeding establishment of J. B. Haggin the best in the world.

THIRTY LEADING MONEY-WINNING OWNERS

Of all the money won on the tracks in operation last week, the horses belonging to the thirty leading coveres won but $9,650, showing conclusively that the less conspicuous owners carried off the major portion of the spoils of the week. This is as it should be and contributes to the health and prosperity of the turf. Necessarily there was very little change in the earnings and relative standing of the big stables, the records of which, including Monday's racing, are as follows:

WINNERS OF THE ADIRONDACK HANDICAP

Some excellent young race horses have won the Adirondack Handicap in the course of the eight years irrunning. Its second winner, Molly Brant, was the best filly ever sent out from the Sanford's Hurrina Stud farm, one capable of competing successfully with the best horses of her time. Salvidere, the have in 1906, was indisputably the champion two-year-old of his year and but for falling lame would obably have been as conspicuously successful when a three-year-old. WALKER-OTIS LAW ARGUED.

Attorneys Cook and Ach Assail California Anti-Betting Statute in Appellate Court.

San Francisco, Cal., August 24.—Designating the Walker-Otis anti-betting law void and unconstitutional because it designates a violation of the law a closp, requiring jury trial, and yet confers upon a closp, requiring jury trial, and yet confers upon felony or a misdemeanor, according to the punishment meted out to the guilty, attorneys Henry Ach and Carroll Cook argued before justices of the Appellate Court yesterday against that measure. If their arguments are sustained, it may mean racing in California, as well as other states of the union which are said to have identical laws.

The attorneys argued that the law passed by last winter's legislature vested in the trial judge the right which only the governor of a state has, viz.: That of reducing a felon to a culprit.

New York, August 24.—Considerable interest is centered in the yearling trials of August Belmont's Rock Sand colts and fillies, now being prepared for racing at Belmont Park. It is already evident that the first of the youngsters by the Derby winner possess speed and lots of it. While nothing approaching fast work has been required of them, they nevertheless gallop and breeze in a manner that indicates class.

In several sets, consisting of inveniles by Hastings, the greatest son of Rayon d'Or, and Octagon, the perfect action of the Rock Sands is easily apparent. Both Histings and Octagon are famous for getting horses that mature early. Hence it is obvious that the two colts and three fillies by the son of Sainfoin, to be handled by trainer John Whaled will have to Slow trials of an exceptionally high deline terms. high character in order to maintain prestige.

Judging from their flattering moves of about 300 yards, it is safe to predict that the Rock Sands will qualify when put to a real test of speed.

WANTED PRICE SET ON HERMIS.

Lexington, Ky., August 24.—Trainer Charles Hughes arrived here this morning from Saratoza to take up Henry M. Ziegler's seven yearlings, among them a half-brother to Barleythorpe, by Adam. He had not been in town an hour when he received a telegram from Tom Welsh, at Saratoga, reading: "Would Mr. Ziegler like to sell Hermis? If so, wire me lowest price and number of mares bred to him this season." Trainer Hughes had a telegraphic conference with Mr. Ziegler at Cincinati, and wired Welsh that Hermis is not for sale. Hermis was mated with twenty-four mares this year. He is now at C. C. Patrick's Highland Farm and is in splendid condition.

JOCKEY NOTTER RESTORED TO FAVOR.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 24.—In a letter to a friend here jockey Joe Notter says that he is riding in Germany again after a term of idleness: Notter is riding for Weinberg, the Hamburg banker, for whom the American, George Walker, is training. Herr Weinberg put Notter down several weeks ago because the stable was in hard luck. He thought that a change of jockeys might help matters, and, while Notter was on the ground, Johnny Reiff and Willie Shaw rode the Weinberg horses. But the change did not help. The stable continued to lose and Notter was restored to favor. Since his restoration, Notier has ridden three winners for Weinberg and two for Jinmy McCormick. McCormick is having good luck.

FORT ERIE STABLES HAVE FILLED.

Entry Fees for Overnight Races During Comin Meeting-All Eyes on Jacksonville Stakes.

Buffalo, N. Y., August 24.—The last of the consignments of racers that were shipped from Windsor arrived at Fort Eric this afternoon and almost every stall on the grounds is now occupied by the thoroughbreds. The nine-day meeting which is scheduled to begin August 26 and continue to September 4, promises to be a good one, although there are not nearly as many horses here as there were for the summer meeting. The same officials will preside in the different departments as during the summer meeting and all are now on the ground ready for the opening.

meeting and all are now on the ground ready for the opening.

The management has decided to charge an entrance fee of $10 to all the overnight races, and while this may have a tendency to keep the fields down to smaller proportions, still it should result in better racing, as it will in a measure tend to climinate those whose chances of earning some share of the purse are slim. It will stop the promiscuous entering of bad horses, something that is sorely needed on this circuit.

The horsemen here are anxiously awaiting the publication of the stakes that will be offered by the Florida Racing Association at Jacksonville naxt wheter. Every owner of prominence racing on this circuit contemplates shipping to Jacksonville, and the meeting at that place should equal that of any winter meeting ever given, either in California or Louisiana.

WHITNEY HORSES MAKE FINE SHOWING.

London, Eng., August 24.—Harry Payne Whitney's horses ran with signal success at York today. Whiskbroom, his two-year-old coft by Broomstick—Audience, won the valuable Prince of Wales Plate of 1,000 sovereigns at 3 to 1, with Galatine second and Woolacombe third. Mr. Whitney's Salile of Navarre colt was among the unplaced starters in this race. Mr. Whitney's Top o' the Morning, by Hamburg—Morningside, won the Badminton Plate of 150 sovereigns for two-year-olds, distance five furlongs. Photime was second and Sister Anne third.

Mr. Whitney's Oversight, by Ballyhoo Bey—Forget, ran second to W. W. Bailey's Pie Man in the Nunthorpe Selling Stakes of five sovereigns each, with 200 sovereigns added, for two-year-olds, distance five furlongs.

DISCUSS LEXINGTON MEETING.

Lexington, Ky., August 24.—President J. N. Camden and several directors of the Kentucky Association held a meeting today to discuss the question of a fall race meeting, but since the views of all those interested could not be had, it was decided to post-pone the matter until about September 10, when a full session of the board can be had. This will be after the decision of the Court of Appeals on the Latonia Jockey Club-State Racing Commission case and after the sales of yearlings in the east. President Camden is not in favor of a meeting here if one is to be given at Latonia, Garrett Wilson and Overton Chenault think there should be at least six days of racing here in any event.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 24.—The field for the Amsterdam Selling Stakes dwindled to four starters, a majority of the many eligibles declining the issue because of the presence of Nimbus in the list of announced starters under the light impost of 108 pounds. This weight was made possible by the conditions, which virtually made the race an owner's ponents—Beaucoup, Norbitt and Tony Bonero—that he was held at odds on in the betting. In the running he proved the dominant factor throughout and his time of 1:28, as officially posted, was the fastest mile run during the Saratoga meeting. Incre-eighths this morning in 35, under a stout pull. This youngster is heralded as a world beater. The customary hood and blinker equipment was not used on The Fad today. Ten Paces had them on, however.

The stewards deliberated a long time before confirming the placings in the fifth race. Glass, who rode Arasee, was sent for and questioned, but no disciplinary action was taken.

Perfect climatic and track conditions combined to bring about three exceedingly fast performances, when The Wrestler, Prince Ahmed and Nimbus ran their respective races. The first-named astounded race-goers when he ran a mile and an eighth in 1:51½, which is only two-fifths of a second slower than the track record. Prince Ahmed ran seveneighths in 1:25½, while Nimbus mile was two-fifths of a second slower than the local mark for the distance.

YEARLINGS GO EAST FROM KENTUCKY.

Lexington, Ky., August 24.—The first shipment of Kentucky thoroughbred yearlings to the fall sales at Sheepshead Bay was made from here this morning. There were two carloads, embracing ten from J. P. Chinn's Leonatus Stock Farm, near Harrodsburg, nine belonging to Colonel Milton Young, six the property of John D. Carr, five from George H. Whitney's Melrose Stud, four from Flouring Platt's farm, four belonging to Benjamin Woodford of Paris and three the property of Horace N. Davis of Lexington, making a total of forty-one. Colonel Young, Mr. Carr, Dr. M. M. Leach and several others accompanied the yearlings east. Twelve of the youngsters are the get of Cesarion. The star of the Cesarion colits is the half-brother to the Latonia Derby winner Had off, from Incorpoducius marenium in a ring of nine yearlings at the recent Blue Grass Pair.

In the Leonatus Stock Farm consignment are four colts and two fillies by Ort Wells that have been much admired by good judges. This is the second crop by the son of King Eric and Tea's Over, His two-year-olds number only two—the fillies, Lady Frederick and Roberta, both of which have started but not won. Among these Ort Wells yearlings is a half-brother to Lady Holyrood, half-brother to Colonel Jack, half-brother to Transmute and half-brother to Don Or. This consignment sales period.

Along with these yearlings Manager Charles McCracken of the Millstream Stud sent the bay filly Madam—Ellangowan for which Frank M. TRAINER JOYNER ON ENGLISH RACING.

TRAINER JOYNER ON ENGLISH RACING.

Trainer Jack Joyner of the Whitney-Belmont English division of American horses at Balaton Lodge. Newmarket, in a recent interview said:

"I like English racing. The people have all been kind to me and I shall always remember my visit as a very pleasant one should I remain no longer than this season. The only kick I have to make is against the handicappers, who I think have been rather harsh on some of my horses, namely Skryi II. Sen Cliffin Hilside III., Perseus II.I. Epoblin I and Dediritate. These recent is the property of the prop

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

Communications without names and addresses will not be noticed nor answered. No answers will be sent by mail and none by wire unless reply prepayment is made at time of wiring query.

D. F., Detroit, Mich. The Horse Review, this city, will inform you. This newspaper deals only with the thoroughbred.

Charles B., Buffalo, N. Y. No liberty at all. The suggestion is a good one and the information you seek will be given hereafter.

G. P., Cincinnati, O. Bets stood on the horses as they were first placed and were not affected by the subsequent disqualification of Gilvedear.

J. S., St. Louis, Mo. If you should hand to another a sum of money and say, "Bet this on Centre Shot for me," the money should be bet straight, in the absence of instuctions to the contrary.

the absence of instuctions to the contrary.

R. E. D., Chicago. One of the Madden horses in the sixth race at Saratoga August 23 having been sold before the race, and the other one scratched, there was no Madden entry in the race and the bet was a draw.

J. J. Brown, St. Louis, Mo. Mitchell is a bay horse, 15 years old, by Favor—Bittersweet. He has won five times—two races at Newport, five and five and a half furlongs, in 1898, and three at one mile at St. Louis—June 11, 1898, in 1:47; June 14, 1898, in 1:42‡, and July 8, 1899, in 1:45‡. The horse evidently could not win on a fast track.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

R. C. Doggett has transferred his filly, Augerona, from trainer A. J. Goldsborough to J. I. Smith, who trains the horses of J. L. McGinnis.

Martin Nathauson is expected to return to Chicago next Monday from Montana, as there will be no extension of the Anaconda meeting, over which he is presiding.

S. C. Hildreth's barn at Sheepshead Bay is being enclosed, which leads to the theory that he may be planning to winter in the east, instead of participating in racing on winter tracks as usual. The present plan of Hildreth, however, is for a Florida campaign.

R. L. Thomas is at Cincinnati, from Windsor. His stable, in charge of Henry McDaniel, is quartered at Sheepshead Bay. He does not think that his colt. Flying Squirrel, will regain his Los Angeles form, as he says he seems unable to run either far or fast. His other good colt. Carroll, has been fixed and turned out for a bowed tendon.

THE KEENE TWO-YEAR-OLDS IN ENGLAND.

The two-year-olds sent to England by James R. Keene have effected nothing of consequence in such little racing as they have done there. Yet, they were carefully selected, grandly-bred and closely related to distinguished racers on this side. Any American would reasonably have expected something of note from a brother to Maskette and a half-brother to Commando. Yet they have done nothing so far. It is true the Keene two-year-olds have done had the state of the state of

TOMMY WRIGHT CLEVER AMATEUR RIDER,

Saratoga, N. Y., August 24.—In order to bead of the victorious Tommy Wright of Baltimore, who seems in a fair way to win all the gentlemen races on the calendar unless something is done to check him, the other non-professionals suggest that the gentlemen jockey races of the future be made selling handicaps. As long as the gentlemen races are ordinary selling affairs, Tommy Wright and his good horse, Rio Grande, are apt to keep right on winning. Mr. Wright is a first-rate jockey. He can made 105 pounds without difficulty, and he rides as well as any professional jockey hereabouts. He is an enthusiastic young horseman and keeps they exercising horses every morning. Wr. Wright is any times been made a profit out of his natural set. But he has so far refused to have anything to do with professional riding, and he says he will continue to ride as an amateur.

Went to post at 3:08. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. The Wrestler drew out and spreadeagled the others under a pull for the first mile, but finished tiring. Haus ran into quick nearest and persistent pursuit of the leader and was wearing him down slowly at the end. Bonnie Kelso, luckly and forwardly placed throughout, failed in the closing drive and was pulpably short. Console, away slowly and badly outpaced early, closed up well at the end and was probably short. Killie-ctankle trailed for half of the journey and finished well. Ball, Crack Shooter, Duquesne	Alagazine is the best horse Mr. Carman ever raced, to is not great, but he is a colt of splendid size and ne speed and he can step a swift mile or mile an neighth when he is right. The Carman silks have not finished first in an east-race race this year. Carman has no two-year-olds, the was advised last summer not to put any money a yearlings and he took the advice to his present egret. He will not be caught without two-year-olds ext season.
